LEGISLATIVE ASSEMBLY.

PRIVATE BILLS.

EXCERPT FROM STANDING ORDERS RELATING TO PRIVATE BILLS.

100. (1.) All applications to the Legislative Assembly for Private Bills of any nature whatsoever shall require the publication of a notice clearly and distinctly specifying the nature and object of the application, and when the application refers to any proposed work, indicating sufficiently the location of the work, to be signed by or on behalf of the applicant.

(2.) Such notice shall be published in The British Columbia Gazette and once a week in one leading daily newspaper freely circulating in all parts of the Province. The notice in such newspaper to appear on Wednesday of each week.

(3.) When the proposed Bill is of such a nature that it may particularly affect one or more electoral districts, the notice shall furthermore be published once a week if possible in some newspaper in every electoral district affected, or if there be no newspaper published therein, then in a newspaper published in the electoral district nearest thereto.

(4.) The publication of such notice shall in all cases be continued for a period of four weeks during the interval of time between the close of the next preceding Session and the consideration of the petition.

97. No petition for any Private Bill shall be received by the House after the first ten days of each Session, nor may any Private Bill be presented to the House after the first three weeks of each Session, nor may any report of any Standing or Select Committee upon a Private Bill be received after the first four weeks of each Session, and no motion for the suspension or modification of this Standing Order shall be entertained by the House until the same has been reported on by the Committee on Standing Orders, or after reference made thereof at a previous sitting of the House to the Standing Committees charged with the consideration of Private Bills, who shall report thereon to the House. And if this rule shall be suspended or modified as aforesaid, the promoters of any Private Bill which is presented after the time hereinbefore limited, or for which the petition has been received after the time hereinbefore limited, shall in either case pay double the fees required in respect of such Bill by this rule, unless the House shall order to the contrary.

98. (1.) Any person seeking to obtain any Private Bill shall deposit with the Clerk of the House, eight clear days before the opening of the Session:—

- (a.) A printed copy of such Bill;
- (b.) A copy of the petition to be presented to the House;
- (c.) Copies of the notices published, with publication proved by a statutory declaration or affidavit to the satisfaction of the Clerk of the House.

(2.) At the time of depositing the Bill and petition the applicant shall also pay to the Clerk of the House the sum of three hundred dollars.

(3.) If a copy of the Bill, petition, and notices proved as aforesaid shall not have been so deposited in the hands of the Clerk of the House at least eight clear days before the opening of the Session or if the petition has not been presented to the House within the first ten days of the Session, the amount to be paid to the Clerk shall be six hundred dollars. If the Bill shall not pass second reading one-half of the fees shall be returned.

101. Every petition signed by an agent or attorney in fact shall be accompanied by the authority of such agent or attorney in fact, and the petition shall not be deemed to be filed with the Clerk until this is done.

102. Before any petition praying for leave to bring in a Private Bill for the erection of a toll-bridge is received by the House, the person or persons intending to petition for such Bill shall, upon giving the notice prescribed by Standing Order 100, also at the same time and in the same manner give notice of the rates which they intend to ask, the extent of the privilege, the height of the arches, the interval between the abutments or piers for the passage of rafts or vessels, and mentioning also whether they intend to erect a drawbridge or not, and the dimensions of the same.

103. (1.) All Private Bills for Acts of incorporation shall be so framed as to incorporate by reference to the clauses of the general Acts relating to the details to be provided for by such Bills: Special grounds shall be established for any proposed departure from this principle, or for the introduction of other provisions as to such details, and a note shall be appended to the Bill indicating the provisions thereof in which the general Act is proposed to be departed from. Bills which are not framed in accordance with this Standing Order shall be recast by the promoters and reprinted at their expense before any Committee passes upon the clauses.

(2.) Every Bill for an Act of incorporation, where a form of model Bill has been adopted, shall be drawn in accordance with the model Bill (copies of model Bills may be obtained from the Clerk of the House). Any provisions contained in any such Bill which are not in accord with the model Bill shall be inserted between brackets or underlined, and shall be so printed.

(3.) Any exceptional provisions that it may be proposed to insert in any Bill shall be clearly specified in the notice of application for same.

107. All Private Bills shall be prepared by the parties applying for the same, and printed in small-pica type, twenty-six ems by fifty ems, on good paper, in imperial octavo form, each page when folded measuring 10¾ inches by 7½ inches. There shall be a marginal number every fifth line of each page; the numbering of the lines is not to run on through the Bill, but the lines of each page are to be numbered separately. Three hundred copies of each Bill shall be deposited with the Clerk of the House immediately before the first reading. If amendments are made to any Bill during its progress before the Committee on Private Bills, or through the House, such Bill shall be reprinted by the promoters thereof.

In the case of Bills to incorporate companies, in addition to the fee of $300 mentioned in Rule 98, fees calculated on the capital of the company are payable at the same time. Further particulars can be had on application to the undersigned.

All cheques in payment of fees must be certified.

Dated September 25th, 1944.

(c.) To pay for any property acquired by the Company either wholly in cash or partly in cash and partly in shares of the Company, or partly in shares of the Company and partly by a mortgage or mortgages for the balance of the purchase money or any part thereof, or to give any other security for the payment or part payment of any property so acquired which may be agreed upon between the vendor of such property and the Company:

(d.) To erect and construct either by the Company or through other parties houses, buildings, or works of every description on any land of the Company or upon any other land or hereditaments, and to pull down, rebuild, enlarge, alter, and improve existing houses, buildings, or works thereon, to convert and subdivide any land of the Company into lots and roads and other conveniences and otherwise generally to deal with and improve the property of the Company:

(e.) To make advances and lend money upon the security of real or personal property of every description or upon personal security:

(f.) To undertake the direction, management, and control of real and personal property of every description and of estates of any tenure or kind, of any persons, firms, or corporations whether members of this Company or not, and to collect rentals and advance at a discount all or any accruing rentals and other incomings in respect of such property or estates:

(g.) To purchase, discount, acquire, deal in, sell, dispose of, or otherwise turn to account agreements for sale of real estate, personal estate or any interest in real or personal estate, and to transact business as real-estate agents, and to carry on the business of mercantile, financial, investment, mortgage, insurance, and general agents and brokers:

(h.) To purchase or otherwise acquire and undertake all or any part of the undertaking, business, property, good-will, assets and liabilities of any company, corporation, society, partnership, or person carrying on or about to carry on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or which is in any respect similar to the objects of this Company, or which is capable of being conducted so as, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company, or possessed of property deemed suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to enter into partnership or into any arrangement with respect to the sharing of profits, union of interests, or amalgamation, reciprocal concession or co-operation, either in whole or in part, with any such company, corporation, society, partnership, or person:

(i.) To allot, credited as fully or partly paid-up, the shares or bonds, debentures, or debenture stock of the Company as the whole or part of the purchase price for any property acquired by the Company, or for services rendered, or other valuable consideration:

(j.) To promote, form, organize, and register, and to aid and assist in promotion, formation, organization, and registration of any other company or companies, whether for the purpose of acquiring all or any of the assets of this Company or for any other purpose, with power to assist such company or companies by paying or contributing towards the preliminary expenses or providing the whole or part of the capital thereof, or by taking or subscribing for shares (preferred, ordinary, or deferred) therein, or by lending money thereto upon debentures or otherwise, to remunerate, either in cash or fully-paid shares or otherwise, the promoters or any persons assisting in the promotion of this Company or any company promoted by this Company, to pay out of the funds of the Company all or any of the expenses of and incidental to the promotion, formation, organization, registration, advertising, and establishment of this or any other company, and to the issue and subscription of the share or loan capital, including brokerage and commissions for obtaining applications for, or placing or guaranteeing the placing of, the shares or any debentures, debenture stock, or other securities of this or any other company:

(k.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire letters patent and similar privileges and concessions, both Canadian and foreign, for inventions or improvements in any invention which may be considered conducive to the attainment of any of the objects of the Company:

(l.) To distribute in specie or otherwise, as may be resolved, any assets of the Company among its members, and particularly the shares, debentures, or other securities of any other company formed to take over the whole or any part of the assets or liabilities of this Company:

(m.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities, and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(n.) To take or otherwise acquire and hold shares or stock in any other company having objects altogether or in part similar to those of this Company, or carrying on any business capable of being conducted so as to, directly or indirectly, benefit this Company:

(o.) To lend money to and guarantee the performance of the contracts and obligations of, and the payment of the principal of or the dividends or interest on any stock, shares, debentures, or securities of any company or person having dealings with the Company in any case in which such loan or guarantee may appear likely, directly or indirectly, to further the objects of this Company or the interest of its shareholders:

(p.) To borrow or raise money on any terms or conditions, and in particular by the issue of debentures or debenture stock (whether perpetual or otherwise) mortgages, bonds, or other securities, and to mortgage or pledge all or any part of the Company's property, including its uncalled capital, for the purpose of securing such debentures, debenture stock, mortgages, bonds, or other securities:

(q.) To make gifts and donations to any person, firm, or corporation for any purpose whatsoever whether such person, firm, or corporation be a member of this Company or not:

(r.) Generally to carry on any other business whatsoever which the Company may desire or may consider capable of being conveniently carried on in connection with the business of the Company:

(s.) To do all such other things as are in the opinion of the directors incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects, and so that the word "company" shall throughout this clause be deemed to include any government, body, authority, partnership, association, or other body of persons whether incorporated or not, and whether registered or domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere.

The objects set forth in any subclause of this clause shall not, except where the context expressly so requires, be in anywise limited or restricted by reference to or inference from the terms of any other subclause, or by the name of the Company. None of such subclauses or the objects therein specified or the powers thereby conferred shall be deemed subsidiary or auxiliary merely to the objects mentioned in the first subclause of this clause, but the Company shall have full power to exercise all or any of the powers conferred by any part of this clause in any part of the world, and notwithstanding that the business, undertaking, property, or acts proposed to be transacted, acquired, dealt with, or performed do not fall within the objects of the first subclause of this clause.

(h.) To acquire by purchase, lease, hire, exchange, or otherwise any timber lands, or leases, timber claims, licences to cut timber, surface rights, water rights and privileges, and to operate, develop, sell, exchange, or otherwise deal with the same as the Company may see fit:

(i.) To produce any form of power and generate electricity for the purpose of light, heat, and power, and to construct, operate, and maintain dams, weirs, and electrical works, power-houses, generating-stations, or any other form of developed power, for the purpose of transmitting the same; to erect or lay any pipes, lines, wires, cuts, drains, and canals, and to sell, exchange, lease, or otherwise dispose of the same to persons or corporations contracting with the Company therefor, for heating, lighting, water-power, or for any other purpose for which electricity or electric, water, steam, or wind power may be applied or required:

(j.) To purchase, build, or otherwise acquire, operate, lease, hire, or dispose of ships, tugs, steamboats, barges, and other vessels, ferries, stage-lines, or other vehicles, and to carry on business as common carriers by land or water, and in general to acquire, hold, or dispose of any real and personal property of whatever description (including any rights and privileges), and to improve, develop, and turn to account the resources of any lands, buildings, and other property for the time being belonging to or controlled by the Company and in such manner as the Company may think fit, and to erect and maintain suitable buildings and structures for all or any of the purposes of the Company:

(k.) To act generally as wholesale, retail, commission, and general merchants:

(l.) To obtain and furnish information in reference to any mining or business proposition in the Province of British Columbia or in reference to the value of any real or personal property, excepting information as may come to the directors by reason of any confidential relationship existing between them and the holders of the business or property aforesaid, and to negotiate loans, and to act as agent for the loan, payment, transmission, collection, and investment of money and for the management of property:

(m.) To invest and deal with the moneys of the Company not immediately required upon such securities and in such manner as may from time to time be determined:

(n.) To lend money to such persons and upon such terms as may seem expedient, and upon such security, whether real or personal as the directors may see fit, and in particular to customers of and all persons having dealings with the Company:

(o.) To apply for, purchase, or otherwise acquire, and to use or grant licences in respect thereof or otherwise turn to account, any patents, inventions, licences, secret processes, trade secrets, and the like, conferring an exclusive or limited right to use the same or any secret or other information as to any invention, which may seem capable of being used for any of the purposes of the Company, or the acquisition of which may seem calculated, directly or indirectly, to benefit this Company:

(p.) To acquire or undertake the whole or any part of the business, property, and liabilities of any person or company carrying on any business which this Company is authorized to carry on, or possessed of property suitable for the purposes of this Company, and to pay for the same in cash or shares of the Company at par or at a premium, fully or partly paid up:

(q.) To promote any company or companies for the purpose of acquiring all or any part of their property or liabilities of this Company, or for any other purpose which may seem, directly or indirectly, calculated to benefit this Company:

(r.) To borrow or raise money in such manner as the Company may think fit, and in particular by the issuing of debentures or debenture stock, perpetual or otherwise, and secure the repayment of any money borrowed or raised by mortgage, charge, or lease upon the whole or any part of the Company's assets, whether present or future, including its uncalled capital, and also by a similar mortgage, charge, or lease to secure and guarantee the performance by the Company or any person or corporation of any obligation or liability which may be undertaken:

(s.) To support and subscribe to any charitable or public object and any institution, society, or club, which may be for the benefit of the Company or its employees, or may be connected with any town or place where the Company carries on its business, and to give pensions, gratuities, or charitable aid to any person or persons who may have served the Company, or to the wives or other dependents of such persons, and to form and contribute to provident and benefit funds for the benefit of any person employed by the Company:

(t.) To remunerate any parties for services rendered or to be rendered in or about the formation or promotion of this Company and the conduct of its business:

(u.) To do all or any of the above things in any part of the world, and either as principals, agents, contractors, or otherwise, and either alone or in conjunction with others, and either by or through agents, sub-contractors, or otherwise:

(v.) To divide any of the assets of the Company in kind among the members of any class or classes of the members, or any individual member of the Company, but so that no distribution amounting to a reduction of capital be made except with the sanction (if any) for the time being required by law:

(w.) To procure the Company to be registered or recognized and to establish local agencies and branch businesses in any province of the Dominion of Canada or elsewhere.

To do all such things as are, or may be deemed to be incidental or conducive to the attainment of the above objects or any of them.

The word "company" in this memorandum when applied otherwise than to this Company shall be deemed to include any partnership or other body of persons whether corporate or unincorporate and whether domiciled in British Columbia or elsewhere, and the objects specified in each of the paragraphs hereto shall be regarded as independent objects, and accordingly shall be in nowise limited or restricted (except when otherwise expressed in such paragraph by reference to the objects indicated in any other paragraph or the name of the Company) but may be carried out in as full and ample a manner and construed in as wide a sense as if each of the said paragraphs defined the objects of a separate, distinct, and independent company.
